

Dan 11:36-45.

'The king will do exactly as he pleases, claiming to be greater than every god there is, even blaspheming the God of gods, and prospering - until his time is up.'

Dan 11:36-45.

For God's plans are unshakable. He will have no regard for the gods of his fathers, nor for the god beloved of women, nor any other god, for he will boast that he is greater than them all.

Dan 11:36-45.

Instead of these, he will worship the Fortress god - a god his fathers never knew - and lavish on him costly gifts! Claiming this god's help, he will have great success against the strongest fortresses.

Dan 11:36-45.

He will honor those who submit to him, appointing them to positions of authority and dividing the land to them as their reward.

Dan 11:36-45.

Then at the time of the end, the king of the south will attack him again, and the northern king will react with the strength and fury of a whirlwind; his vast army and navy will rush out to bury him with their might.

Dan 11:36-45.

He will invade various lands on the way, including Israel, the Pleasant Land, and overthrow the governments of many nations.

Dan 11:36-45.

Moab, Edom, and most of Ammon will escape, but Egypt and many other lands will be occupied. He will capture all the treasures of Egypt, and the Libyans and Ethiopians shall be his servants.

Dan 11:36-45.

But then news from the east and north will alarm him, and he will return in great anger to destroy as he goes. He will halt between Jerusalem and the sea and there pitch his royal tents, but while he is there his time will suddenly run out, and there will be no one to help him.'

Dan 12:1-13.

'At that time Michael, the mighty angelic prince who stands guard over your nation, will stand up and fight for you in heaven against satanic forces, and there will be a time of anguish for the Jews greater than any previous suffering in Jewish history.

Dan 12:1-13.

And yet every one of your people whose names are written in the Book will endure it. And many of those whose bodies lie dead and buried will rise up, some to everlasting life and some to shame and everlasting contempt.

Dan 12:1-13.

And those who are wise - the people of God - shall shine as brightly as the sun's brilliance, and those who turn many to righteousness will glitter like stars forever.

Dan 12:1-13.

But Daniel, keep this prophecy a secret; seal it up so that it will not be understood until the end times, when travel and education shall be vastly increased!

Dan 12:1-13.

Then I, Daniel, looked and saw two men on each bank of a river. And one of them asked the man in linen robes who was standing now above the river, ‘How long will it be until all these terrors end?’

Dan 12:1-13.

He replied, with both hands lifted to heaven, taking oath by him who lives forever and ever, that they will not end until three and a half years after the power of God's people has been crushed.

Dan 12:1-13.

I heard what he said, but I didn't understand what he meant. So I said, 'Sir, how will all this finally end?'

Dan 12:1-13.

But he said, 'Go now, Daniel, for what I have said is not to be understood until the time of the end.'

Dan 12:1-13.

Many shall be purified by great trials and persecutions. But the wicked shall continue in their wickedness, and none of them will understand. Only those who are willing to learn will know what it means.

Dan 12:1-13.

From the time the daily sacrifice is taken away and the Horrible Thing is set up to be worshiped, there will be 1290 days. And blessed are those who wait and remain until the 1335th day!

Dan 12:1-13.

But go on now to the end of your life and your rest; for you will rise again and have your full share of those last days.'
